

THE SEVILLE JOURNAL

The largest crowd in Seville last Saturday night since before the war. What was the attraction? A good open air concert in Central park and two performances at the picture show with a crowded house at each performance.

Say, do you remember what delightful times, you had at the Seville Chautauqua last year? Of course you do. Coming again, Aug. 21 to 25, with an excellent five day program.

The aeroplane is still a great attraction in Seville. One passed over us Sunday night and we all ran to the middle of the street to see it. It is like the automobile was a few years ago. Now we are more apt to run to the door when some one goes by with a horse and buggy to see who the old timer might be. (Ach, such is life).

Ball game last Saturday afternoon between Seville and the Miller Indians of Akron, resulted in a score of 8 to 2 in favor of the Seville team. Seville is walloping everything that comes along, lately. Keep it up, boys.

At the ball game Sunday our team defeated the team from Poë. Score 9 to 12. We congratulate the boys, for this is the first game they have won this season.

Quite a number of our people are taking grides in the flying machine. The price is from $5.00 up, according to how far you want to go and the number of "flips" you want. They all say they enjoy the ride, but I'll wager a red apple against a peanut that they are all glad and happy when they get down on old mother earth again.

The Sunday school contest at the U. B. church came to a close Sunday, and now all there is to it is for the losing side to banquet the winners.

Quite a few of our people went to the Sharon camp-meeting Sunday. One of our misguided brothers said he liked to go over there because they have the "old fashioned preaching," which he says is better than the brand they get here, but we fail to see how a man is capable of criticising a church or preacher when he never sees the inside of a church; our opinion is that he goes there because salvation is free and he usually gets a big free dinner besides.

Poe

Mrs. Harter has sold her place and will move to Wadsworth this fall in time for school.

The young people had a picnic at the ledges in Hinckley on Sunday. All report a fine time.
